JEWISH LEARNING LAB for ADULTS
Fall 2021

Classes begin on Wednesday, October 20, 2021.
Links for classes meeting on Zoom will be emailed to participants before classes begin.

Foundations for a Thoughtful Judaism: People, Faith & Practice
Join Rabbi Gwasdoff and explore foundational concepts of Judaism and Jewish life. This course is recommended for anyone taking their first steps into Jewish thought. From lifelong Jews to those interested in conversion, all are welcome to be a part of the conversation and debates that underlie our Jewish heritage.
Thursdays @ 7:00pm on ZOOM

Foundations for a Thoughtful Judaism: Ethics
What do I owe my inner circle? What do I owe to others? How do I maintain relationships with integrity when people wrong one another? How should I balance competing values when making a decision? Join Karma for this exploration of ethical obligation and decision making.
Thursdays @ 11:00am on ZOOM

Kolot (Adult Choir)
Music is the heart of the Jewish soul. Sing, listen, and learn new pieces with Rabbi and Lindy.
Wednesdays @ 7:30pm on ZOOM

Book Club
Expand your Jewish experience through fictional and non-fictional works. Upcoming reads include: The Righteous Few by Marty Brounstein, The Lost Shtetl by Max Gross, and The Art of Leaving by Ayelet Tsabari.
2nd Thursday of the Month @ 7:00pm on ZOOM

Hebrew: Phonetic Decoding
Begin your Hebrew experience by learning the letters and vowels sounds of the Hebrew alphabet.
Sundays @ 10:30am in person (Rosenberg Hall)
If you are not comfortable meeting in person, contact Karma to arrange for a virtual tutor.

Hebrew: Understanding the Siddur
In this course, we will examine the translations and interpretive meanings of the prayers in our Erev Shabbat Siddur (Friday night prayerbook). Basic Hebrew reading skills required.
Wednesdays @ 6:30pm in person
An onsite Zoom connection for Kolot will be made available for anyone enrolled in this course who would also like to be a part of Kolot. Kolot meets Wednesdays from 7:30p-8:30p.